

NASHVILLE OLD-TIME STRING BAND ASSOCIATION NOTSBA

Breakin' Up Winter XXIV

Cedars of Lebanon State Park • Thursday, February 28 - Sunday, March 3, 2019

This coming March, join the fun at NOTSBA's 24th annual Breakin' Up Winter retreat where attendees enjoy outstanding performances, jams, and practical workshops with accredited traditional music professionals.

This weekend is well attended by folks who play fiddle, open-back banjo, guitar, upright bass, dulcimer, and other old-time acoustic instruments. About two-thirds are locals; most arrive Thursday night and return home on Sunday.

210 musicians attended our event last year and nearly every one visited our vendors' merchandise during their time with us. They love shopping for unique instruments, books and recordings, and most vendors report being pleased with their overall sales.

If you're not in a position to be a vendor this year, we hope you will consider supporting our organization and our event by becoming a Breakin' Up Winter XXIV Patron or Sponsor
